

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry "documentary" days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation. To force their affiliates to do this at a critical time in our election process without giving equal time to Kerry is a violation of their charter.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard.

Please do something about this illegal action.

Thank you
